The Historical Society of Southern California was founded on November 1, 1883, and incorporated February 13, 1891. It has enjoyed an unbroken record of continuous activity and growth. Commencing in 1884, and each year through 1934, the society issued an Annual Publication. In 1935 The Quarterly (later renamed the Southern California Quarterly) was initiated. The Society's publications through 1976 have been indexed and described in a concise abstract of articles by Anna Marie and Everett Gordon Hager (comps.), A Bibliography (1958), The Topical Index (1959), and Cumulative Index (1977). The current issue and all back issues are available online to members of the Society (regular level and higher) and through subscribing libraries.
